LEADERSHIP ACADEMY TOPIC: CULTURAL COMPETENCE & CULTURAL HUMILITY FOR PEER PROVIDERS

About the Workshop: No matter your background or lived experiences, developing cultural competence and practicing cultural humility are life-long learning processes. Participants in this workshop will have the opportunity to reflect upon their own multi-dimensional cultural identities and explore how these aspects of self relate to working with individuals in the community, discuss key tenets of cultural competence & cultural humility, engage in dialogue around cultural considerations specific to peer support service provision in the behavioral health field, and learn approaches to providing culturally sensitive and responsive services. Please join us for this dynamic training and engage in interactive learning & skills practice opportunities with fellow participants!

About the Presenter: Dr. Jei Africa is one of the few Tagalog-speaking clinical psychologists in the San Francisco Bay Area who is also certified as a domestic violence and addiction counselor. Dr. Africa also works as a consultant, educator and facilitator on integrating diversity and multicultural issues in clinical and organizational practice. Presently, he is Director of the Office of Diversity and Equity at the San Mateo County Behavioral Health and Recovery Services (BHRS), where he has been a leader and advocate in promoting social justice and health equity. Through his guidance and leadership, numerous initiatives have been developed to address different culturally-focused disparities and he is currently leading county-wide efforts to integrate cultural competence and cultural humility practices and services across every department in San Mateo County.

Please RSVP (now required☺), as space is limited!
